

Fi a'r Byd - Blwyddyn 2 a 3

Exploring our role and place in our community and the wider world.

Essential
Questions

1. What makes me a valuable member of my community?
2. How do we connect to different communities?
3. What are the similarities and differences between communities and cultures around the world?
4. How do different communities celebrate their culture?

What makes me a valuable member of my community?	How do we connect to different communities?	What are the similarities and differences between communities and cultures around the world?	How do different communities celebrate their culture?

Why am I learning this?	Why am I learning this?	Why am I learning this?	Why am I learning this?
- To explore what makes me unique. - To understand that I am important and valuable to my family, community and beyond. - To explore the traditions and cultures of my community - To understand how every member of a community is important and can contribute. - To learn that everyone can contribute to a community, regardless of their background, culture or experiences.	- To understand that they are part of different communities, such as family, school, local and wider communities. - To explore how communication, cooperation and shared experiences help people connect with one another. - To discover that people from different communities can have common interests, values, needs and experiences. - To understand how communities locally and around the world can be connected through communication, travel, technology, shared interests and common issues.	- To learn that people may live differently, while sharing many of the same needs, experiences and values. - To develop an understanding of different traditions, languages, religions, food, celebrations, homes and ways of life. - To see that despite cultural differences, communities around the world often share common features such as families, schools, friendships, celebrations and a sense of belonging.	- To understand that communities have different ways of expressing and celebrating their culture. - To explore how celebrations can help people express their heritage, values and sense of identity. - To recognise that celebrations often share common themes such as family, food, music, storytelling, gratitude and coming together. - To appreciate traditions, beliefs and customs that may be different from their own. - To experience traditions and arts from other cultures.
My Learning Experiences	My Learning Experiences	My Learning Experiences	My Learning Experiences
Exploring what our role is in our communities. Learn about the people that influence our communities. Learn about the people who make our world a better place.	We will learn about different communities in our immediate area. Question what makes a community. Explore communities who have moved around the world and established new homes.	Compare the clothing, food and traditions of Wales to those of cultures around the world. Explore the history behind some of our traditions and cultures.	Learn about different celebrations such as Diwali, Jul, thanksgiving, hanukkah and kwanzaa. Hear from people in our local area who participate in some of these celebrations.